ARTICLES OF CONSTITUTION.

NAME.

1. The name of this Society shall be "The Ottawa Valley Graduates' Society of McGill University."

COMPOSITION OF THE SOCIETY.

2. The Society shall be composed of all graduates of McGill University who desire to become members, and shall be elected in accordance with the constitution of the Society.

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

3. The objects of the Society shall be to inform the members thereof of all matters of importance affecting the University ; to enable them by united efforts to more effectually promote its interests, and to afford opportunities of social intercourse to its graduates residing in the Ottawa Valley.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

4. The affairs and business of the Society shall be managed by an executive committee consisting of an Honorary President, a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and five other members who shall be elected at the annual meeting, and shall enter upon the duties of their offices two weeks after their election. Until the election and installation into office of the Executive Committee, which shall be elected at the annual meeting to be held on the third Tuesday in February, 1891, in accordance with the next article, the Executive Committee elected at the last general meeting shall remain in office. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

ANNUAL MEETING.

5. The annual meeting shall be held in Ottawa on the third Tuesday in February of each year. The different representative Fellows shall be invited to attend and report to the meeting on University business.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

6. General meetings of the Society shall be called by the Secretary on the requisition of the President, or of any three members of the Executive Committee, or of ten members of the Society.

QUORUM.

7. Ten shall form a quorum of the Society, and four a quorum of the Executive Committee.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

8. Members may be elected at any general meeting of the Society, or by the Executive Committee at any meeting of the Committee; but if elected by the Executive Committee, the names of those so elected shall be laid before the Society at the next general meeting of the Society after such election for the information of the members.

Candidates for election shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another.

All elections shall be by ballot among the members. No election shall be valid unless at least six members of the Executive Committee ballot when the election is by such committee, or at least ten members ballot when the election is by a general meeting of the Society. One black ball, or negative vote in three, shall exclude when the election is by Executive Committee, and one black ball, or negative vote in six, shall exclude when the election is by a general meeting of the Society. But if a candidate has been excluded at a meeting of the Executive Committee, his name may be proposed for election at any general meeting of the Society, notwithstanding his exclusion by the Executive Committee. If a candidate be excluded at any general meeting of the Society, he shall not be again eligible for election until one year after the date of such rejection.

FEES.

9. (a) An entrance fee of $2 shall be due and payable immediately after the member shall be notified by the Secretary of his having been elected a member (one dollar thereof to be applied for the benefit of the University, as provided by sub-section (c) of this by-law, and payment of the entrance fee shall exempt from the payment of any further fee for the remainder of the then current year. No one, although duly elected, shall be considered a member, or entitled to any of the privileges of the Society until the entrance fee is paid.

(b.) The annual subscription fee for membership shall be one dollar.

(c) In addition to the annual subscription fee, each member of the Society shall subscribe the sum of one dollar a year towards the formation of a fund to be devoted to furthering the interests of the University in the mode which may be approved of by the annual general meeting of the Society.

(d.) All subscriptions shall be due and payable in advance on the third Tuesday of February in each year. If any member shall fail to pay his subscriptions for the current year before the first day of March in that year, notice of such non-payment shall be sent to him by the Secretary; and if the subscriptions be not paid before the first day of April of that year, the defaulter shall cease to be a member of the Society, unless he can excuse the default to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee.

(e) No member in arrears shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Society or of the Executive Committee.

ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION.

10. No alteration shall be made in this constitution except at a general meeting of the Society, nor unless notice shall have been given at a previous general meeting of the purport of the proposed alteration. Propositions to pass new rules, or to abolish or alter existing ones, shall not be carried except by a majority of two thirds of the members voting at such meeting, and there shall be at least eighteen members present and voting.

MEMBERS TO BE CONSIDERED BOUND BY CONSTITUTION.

11. All persons who have heretofore or, who may hereafter become members of the Society shall be considered as giving their adhesion to the articles of the constitution and their consent to be bound thereby.

RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS.

12. Any member intending to resign his membership of the Society shall signify his wish in writing to the Secretary on or before the first day of February, in any year, otherwise he shall be liable for his subscription for the ensuing year.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

13. In case the conduct of any member shall in the opinion of the Executive Committee, or of any 12 members of the Society, be injurious to the character and interests of the Society, the Executive Committee shall be empowered to request such member to resign, and if the member so requested shall not resign within a month after such request, the Executive Committee shall then call a general meeting, and if a majority of two thirds of those present and voting (of whom there must be at least twenty) vote for the expulsion of such member, he shall cease to be a member of the Society.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

14. The Society shall have power at any general meeting to elect by ballot any one, being a distinguished graduate of the University, to be an honorary member without subscriptions for such period as the Society think fit. But any such election must be by the unanimous vote of the members present and voting.

POWERS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

15. The Executive Committee shall have the power of dealing with the funds of the Society as it shall deem advantageous for the Society, or the interests of the University.

HOW QUESTIONS ARE TO BE DECIDED.

16. At any general meeting, the question before the meeting shall be decided by a majority of those present and voting, except where it is otherwise provided by these rules.
